

I rode with Lendon Gray at Scarlet Day Farm December 1st and 2nd 2018. I brought my pony Nachu Peakin.

I worked on bending. Lendon stood in the middle of a 20 meter circle and I gave my outside rein and worked on bending in. Nacho yanks on my reins a lot. Lendon told me to give the reins a little so they are not so short and Nacho didn't yank as much. I sometimes forgot to check my diagonal and when I did it took a loop or two. I worked on remembering to check my diagonal sooner.

I enjoyed my lessons with Lendon. Scarlet Day Farm was really nice because they let us use their barn. I learned a lot and am excited for the next clinic.

Thank you,
Xavier Cummings
