Letter from Lendon Gray

Welcome riders, parents, trainers, friends and relatives to the 23rd Annual Youth Dressage Festival!

Congratulations to the winner of our art contest, MacKenzie Pearl from Atkinson, Maine, whose artwork is on the program cover. I love this part of our show. Our programs are always fun and unique.

We have so many wonderful volunteers, some who have been with us since the first festival in 1999. How incredibly lucky we are to have people who give up their vacation time, their family time, their horse time to help you out. Conducting this event is a year-round process. Being a part of the Organizing Committee does not require one to live near, or travel to, Bedford NY, the headquarters of D4K. Our committee ranges from Maine to Florida, and we are always looking for new people to help keep this show going as well as other D4K activities like the Weekend Equestrian Program and the TEAM clinics.

Everyone please take notice of our generous and loyal sponsors. We are very fortunate to have so many people who want to assist us in our activities. Obviously without them we wouldn't exist. Don't be shy about thanking them, please. And give a special shout out to the sponsors who have been with us for 23 straight years (Theresa Davidson, Wendy Luscombe, and Trafalgar Square Publishing), and to those sponsors who have been with us for ten or more years (Sam Grunkorn, Hampton Green Farm, Rhinebeck Equine, and The Cheshire Horse).

Part of being a good competitor is learning to adapt to the weather. So, everyone please watch out for each other – drink lots of water and don't wear coats if it's hot. The judges do NOT want to see you struggling with the heat under a coat.

Let's make sure that our wonderful equines are first and foremost in our plans. Do what you can to make sure that they have a comfortable, clean, quiet stall with water at all times; remember that part of what makes our show special is that it is based on horsemanship, which means putting their health and comfort first. Their feeding schedule should be as close as possible to what they have at home. Take them for a graze when you can. Don't sit on them and use them as couches. If you aren't actually riding, get off and hold them. If the weather is hot, find ways to keep them cool. We have stable managers walking through the stables checking on everything. Feel free to ask them questions.

Let each one of us do everything we can to make this a great few days for everyone. Take a moment now to think about what needs to happen for you to have fun, and then you take responsibility to make it happen for those around you. This might involve helping a fellow competitor or a volunteer with their work, thanking as many people as you can, cheering up someone having a tough day, helping your child learn how to lose graciously, seeing a problem and coming forth to help solve it. I hope everyone will say as they drive out the gate, "Wow, that was a fun couple of days!"

For those who take home medals and ribbons, my heartiest congratulations. For those who maybe don't have their best days of competition, hey, that happens to all of us. I hope you have fun anyway. I had some really disastrous competitions in my day but still made two Olympic teams. The one dressage test sheet I have kept from all my years of competing is the one where I got a 38%! There are lots of ways to win: Overcome a difficulty, be a super sport, have your horse stand still in the halt for the first time, do your first test ever in the pouring rain, keep smiling even though you just did the worst test of your life.

Here are some notes for you to remember this weekend:

- *No matter what we do, we cannot guarantee a perfect sound system, so please help out. This means planning ahead, reading all notices, and especially passing on any announcements you hear to everyone you run into. Check the bulletin boards regularly.
- *Once again, each rider is expected to be prepared to get to the proper ring at the proper time. Our stewards are there to try to keep things safe and to let you know if the ring is running early or late. They are not there to tell you when you go, or who you are after, etc. Have a piece of paper in your pocket with your ride time and the numbers of the three riders are ahead of you; Make sure you let the steward know that you are there. The stewards will tell you when you may go around the competition arena. They will not go looking for you or yell out your number. It is your responsibility to be ready.
- *If you do not have a trainer and would like help with your warm-up please check at the office or find Lendon.
- *Any bicycle rider endangering or annoying horses, riders or pedestrians will be banned from riding their bicycle on the grounds. Remember horses and pedestrians have the right of way over bicycles. Ride slowly please. There are to be NO bicycles in the barn aisles or by the doors into the barns.
- *Remember only licensed drivers may drive golf carts.
- *Parade of teams – please respect parents and sponsors and dress in riding or team attire.
- *Check for any schedule changes on bulletin board after 7 a.m. each day.
- *There is no value to continually asking when scores will be posted!
- *If you have any special requests or you question a score you must go to the Appeals Committee: contact Fern Feldman.
- *Remember to thank the volunteers and your parents!

Lendon Gray

Youth Dressage Festival
Code of Conduct

All participants, including riders, trainers, and parents, are required to abide by the following:

- Sportsmanship is developed through good manners and a commitment to fair and friendly competition.
- Sport should reflect courage, patience, good temper, and unselfishness.
- Sport is fun and is meant to be enjoyed by all.

Officials

Joy Black has been writing the written tests for the Youth Dressage Festival since around 2007. Joy is a full-time physician assistant and on the side, has been a professional test writer for the NCCPA an organization certifying physician assistants through a national exam. She has found it a pleasure to use her test writing skills for Dressage4Kids. Joy has ridden most of her life, is a USDF L graduate, and will be competing at 3rd level on her horse Bimini. She is originally from Burlington, VT and trained with Carol Lavell as a youth. Joy lives near Albany, NY.

Karry Bengtson-Brothers is a USDF L Graduate with Distinction, USDF Bronze Medalist, USEF "r" Western Dressage judge, part of the management team for NEDA's judge education program and is currently raising her next dressage partner, Lachlan (Everdale x Wynton), a stunning 5 year old KWPN bred by Rhodes Farm. Her focus is on biomechanics of both horse and rider and how they affect each other, particularly in dressage. Karry owns Emerald Glen in Stephentown NY, where the focus of the riding programs are on horsemanship, sportsmanship, and kindness. She currently works with horses of all different types and riders with all different abilities and emphasizes that there is always more to learn!

Sherree Cushner started out her horse career trail riding, then moved into the hunter/jumper world. But jumping high fences was not something that she wanted to do, so when Anne Gribbons started giving group dressage lessons, she signed up. That was the start of her love affair with dressage. Over the years, Sherree has had the opportunity to work with several of the ex-cavalrymen, like Major Buttykay, Major Carmona, General Burton and Colonel Wimert. Additionally, she worked with Dr Gahwyler, Marilyn Payne and most recently Kathy Adams. Sherree's long term partner was a wonderful Dutch horse named Zenit. Zenit had been purchased as a schoolmaster to teach Sherree. They formed a wonderful partnership, earning Sherree her USDF Medals, and Zenit his Performance Certificate at Grand Prix, along with multiple national year end awards at the FEI levels. Sherree is an "L" program graduate "with distinction", and therefore can judge at schooling shows. She enjoys judging and particularly helping participants understand and improve, through meaningful comments.

Madeleine Debure - Originally from France, Madeleine Debure has been living in the USA since 2006. She owns and operates Free Walk Dressage, a small training and sales barn located an hour north of New York City. She splits her time between competing, teaching, judging and creating art performances with horses. With her mentor, the Colonel Christian Carde, she wrote and published Le Dressage et La Compétition (Belin, Paris, 2014). She graduated from the USDF L Program with distinction in 2018.

Tom Duggan grew up in Ireland in county Kildare, and trained under the Irish Horse Board as well as the British Horse Society. He moved to the US in 1984, where he established Kildare Stables, a training facility located in Millbrook, NY. At Kildare Stables Tom produces horses and riders for eventing and jumpers. He and his wife have produced many horses who has gone on to compete at the National as well as International level. Tom's focus is on classical style of riding and the ability to recognize talent in horses and riders.

Barbara Filippelli has been an R judge in Hunters, equitation and jumpers for 30 years. Barb is the president of the Fairfield West Chester PHA and is on the board of directors for the national PHA. Barbara runs her business, Valley Pond Farm at Kirby Hill Farm in Pawling, New York. She has recently received her Bronze Medal, and she has a wonderful mix of clients who enjoy competing in hunters and jumpers as well as dressage.

Officials Continued

Margaret Freeman is a USEF Senior dressage judge living in Tryon NC. She is the executive secretary of the USDF. She is a free-lance editor and has covered the equestrian events at seven Olympics for the Associated Press. She is an experienced show organizer, is on the committee of Dressage4Kids, and was on the founding committees of CDCTA (VA) and Dressage at Devon (PA).

Vicki Hammers-O'Neil is a USDF Certified Instructor Tr -4th levels and a member of the USDF Instructor Certification Faculty, as well as a United States Pony Club National Examiner for the Dressage Specialty. A dressage trainer and instructor for over 25 years, Vicki teaches riders of all ages and levels at Durham Equestrian in Durham, Connecticut. Over the years, Vicki has earned her USDF Bronze and Silver Medals, as well as winning numerous local and regional awards. Vicki's positive teaching style makes her a popular clinician, adult camp instructor and trainer.

Nancy Later Lavoie is an accomplished Grand Prix rider and trainer. In addition to training and competing Nancy has founded Carousel Coaching, where she is able to offer mindset and performance coaching. Nancy has long been involved in supporting youth Dressage riders through her training as well as acting as Region 8 Chef d'Equipe and Coordinator. Presently Nancy is in New Hampshire at Kilgore Farm in the summer and Wellington, FL in the winter. She is a USDF Bronze, Silver and Gold Medalist as well as a Five Star Rider.

Ida Norris - Ida's youth background includes being an H-A Pony Club graduate of Penobscot Pony Club, winning national honors in 4-h in multiple projects (winning trips to Chicago), many Local, State, and National awards in Appaloosa and Half Arabian Horse show circuits, 1978 Maine Appaloosa Queen, competed in the National Queen contest, and Recipient of the Appaloosa Horse Club 1978 National Youth Award. Ida is riding, teaching and training daily, helping horses and rider meet their goals; assisting many in reaching horse of the year awards and attaining USDF medals through Virtual lessons, live clinics and teaching. Statistics: USEF "S" Senior Dressage Judge since 2000/ USEF; "R" Western Dressage Judge; USDF Gold, Silver and Bronze Medalist on horses she trained herself; WD Level Five Competitor; FEI Dressage Competitor; USEF Western Dressage Committee 2021-2023; WDAA Continuing Education Committee 2020-2021; 2020-22 Active on Line Judge for Dressage thru G.P. and W.D.thru Level 5. When not training dressage or western dressage, Ida loves to ride her mare in Working Equitation Classes and Compete in International Agility for recreation. Her passion is making short educational videos on her u-tube Channel Ida Norris Dressage. She lives with husband Mark at Mill Pond Farm in Benson Vermont.

Corinna Fleming is a 2003 graduate with distinction of the USDF "L" Education Program for Judges' Training, a USDF Certified Instructor, and a USDF Bronze Medalist. She grew up in Germany and was introduced to dressage when she began riding at an early age. Corinna owned and operated Lost Island Farm in Falls Village, CT, from 1995 to 2021. She is available to judge at unrecognized dressage and CT competitions and for dressage instruction and clinics. Photo credit: Susan Stickle Photography

Carol Seaman is a USDF USEF Silver Medalist and "L" Graduate. She has competed successfully thru Grand Prix, and her students have competed and received high recognition in all levels at USEF, USDF and FEI sanctioned shows. She is the former owner and head trainer of Outfoxed Farm in Chester, NY, and is presently training at WillsWay Equestrian Center in Goshen, NY. Carol has over 30 years experience. Lessons/Coaching/Sales/Training; Experience with all levels Training-FEI; Choreography and Music design for Freestyles; Clinics and lessons.

Officials Continued

Breanna Sprik - Bree has been an avid rider for over 30 years and working as a professional for over 20. She achieved her USDF bronze and silver medals on her beloved draft cross, Dante. She is a USDF "L" graduate with distinction who has also had a successful show career in show jumping, has dabbled in lower level eventing and fox hunting and most recently, has been active in the sport of working equitation. She is a USAWE licensed working equitation coach and is on track to complete the USAWE "L" (judging) program by the end of 2022. She regularly gives clinics around the northeast region in both dressage and working equitation. Bree also owns a farm and runs a busy training and lesson business based in New York. She enjoys teaching her students to become their own horsemen/women, critical thinkers rather than lesson takers. It is a never ending learning journey and it will never be complete. She encourages her students to ride and show if that is what they wish to do but above all she wants to teach them to listen to their horse, appreciate the small victories, and develop a relationship and foundation to build on for their entire career together.

Sara Vanecek comes to us with over 20 years of experience as a professional sport horse handler, teacher and clinician. Sara's extensive equine experience includes being a dressage rider, 35 years as a professional stable manager both in the elite dressage stable and hunter show barn. Her passion for groundwork began with the raising and training of young sport horses and grew into a career of natural horsemanship, groundwork, longlining and remedial work, complimenting her stable management. Sara is a certified ROTH Trainer and owner of Sara Vanecek Horsemanship and Training. She has a soft spot for the horses in dire and critical situations and dedicates her significant training experience to the rescue, rehabilitation and rehoming of rescue horses. Sara shares her passion through her business to support owners and their horses through horsemanship to connect, communicate and gain confidence through groundwork. This summer she'll head back to California to work with the untouched American Mustang. Photo credit: Carole MacDonald.

Krystal Wilt is a USDF L Graduate with Distinction and USEF r Candidate. She is a USDF Bronze and Silver Medalist and is based out of Glenville, NY, where she teaches and trains dressage. She is also a mother of two boys, a corgi lover, and enjoys hiking and being outdoors (usually working on the farm) in her spare time.

Be the best you can be – on and off the horse

Horse Donation Program – Each horse is matched with a rider who agrees to keep the horse or pony forever. The happiness of all is our premier tenet.

TEAM (Training, Education & Mentoring)

Program – open to riders of all levels, ages 25 and under. By simple application with a demonstration video, letter of recommendation, and a small fee, you have access to: a community of determined young dressage riders, educational materials, clinics with world-class instructors, special notice of horses to lease, and so much more! TEAM Program instructors have included Allison Brock, Felicitas von Neumann-Cosel, Lilo Fore, Olivia LaGoy-Weltz, and Lendon Gray.

WEP (Weekend Equestrian Program) – some of the best seminars on: riding skills and theory, horse management, horse health, stable management, marketing your business, fitness, and drawing, with more great workshops every year and inspirational keynote speakers. Past keynote speakers have included Allison Brock, Denny Emerson, and Laura Graves.

Scholarships – Thanks to its partners and sponsors, D4K has developed a scholarship and professional development program.

T4T (Training4Teaching Program) – intended to help professionals in HOW to teach (as they already know WHAT to teach).

WIT (Winter Intensive Training Program)

– in Wellington, Florida, from January through March, the most determined, passionate, aspiring young riders can participate in consistent and extensive training in riding and all areas of horse care, riding and training theory, and competition skills. Through field trips, guest lectures, and the best instruction, riders of any level and experience can grow to be the best dressage riders they can be.

Youth Dressage Festival – the flagship event of Dressage4Kids, the Festival offers individual and team competition for riders ages 4 through 25. Division championships feature a three-phased competition: a written test, an equitation ride, and an individual dressage test. Lendon's Youth Dressage Festival is an annual event usually held in July at HITS-on-the-Hudson in New York. Additional Festivals are held at Hampton Green Farm in Michigan and at the Georgia International Horse Park in Georgia.
