

 Favorite * Knowledge * Opportunity * Gratitude ***

These are just some of the words our participants use when talking about Dressage4Kids™ and Dressage4Kids™ Programs.

With the help of supporters like you, Dressage4Kids™ has designed programs to provide educational and competitive opportunities for youth and adults to further their knowledge and love of the sport.

Dressage4Kids™ relies on your donations to help fund our innovative programs. Will you consider donating today?

In the words of some of our participants:

"I am incredibly grateful that D4K is so inclusive within its proliferation of dressage-based education."

"Thank you again for your continued support of young riders and for your encouragement. It gave me a unique opportunity that I may not have had otherwise."

Donate Today

Click on the "Donate Today" button above or send a check made out to "Dressage4Kids" to:

Fern Feldman
890 Mountain Road
Cheshire, CT 06410

Dressage4Kids is a tax-exempt 501c(3) organization and all donations are tax deductible to the extent permitted by law. D4K's tax ID# is 06-1600087.

"Thank you everyone for all the hard work you guys do for us to be able to follow our dreams!" - Dressage4Kids™ participant

Dressage4Kids™ Programs:

Scholarships – Thanks to its partners and sponsors, D4K has developed a scholarship and professional development program.

<https://dressage4kids.org/scholarships/>

TEAM (Training, Education & Mentoring) Program – open to riders of all levels, ages 25 and under. By simple application with a demonstration video, letter of recommendation, and a small fee, you have access to: a community of determined young dressage riders, educational materials, clinics with world-class instructors, special notice of horses to lease, and so much more! TEAM Program instructors have included Allison Brock, Felicitas von Neumann- Cosel, Lilo Fore, Olivia LaGoy-Weltz, and Lendon Gray. <https://dressage4kids.org/programs/team-program.html>

T4T (Training4Teaching Program) – intended to help professionals in HOW to teach (as they already know WHAT to teach).
<https://dressage4kids.org/programs/training4teaching.html>

WEP (Weekend Equestrian Program) – some of the best seminars on: riding skills and theory, horse management, horse health, stable management, marketing your business, fitness, and drawing, with more great workshops every year and inspirational keynote speakers. Past keynote speakers have included Allison Brock, Denny Emerson, and Laura Graves. <https://dressage4kids.org/programs/weekend-equestrian-program.html>

WIT (Winter Intensive Training Program) – in Wellington, Florida, from January through March, the most determined, passionate, aspiring young riders can participate in consistent and extensive training in riding and all areas of horse care, riding and training theory, and competition skills. Through field trips, guest lectures, and the best instruction, riders of any level and experience can grow to be the best dressage riders they can be. <https://dressage4kids.org/programs/winter-intensive-training-program.html>

Youth Dressage Festival – the flagship event of Dressage4Kids, the Festival offers individual and team competition for riders ages 4 through 25. Division championships feature a three-phased competition: a written test, an equitation ride, and an individual dressage test. Lendon's Youth Dressage Festival is an annual event usually held at HITS-on-the-Hudson in New York. Additional Festivals are held at Hampton Green Farm in Michigan and at the Georgia International Horse Park in Georgia. <https://dressage4kids.org/d4k-festival/show-info/>

Horse Donation Program – Each horse is matched with a rider who agrees to keep the horse or pony forever. The happiness of all is our premier tenet. <https://dressage4kids.org/programs/dressage4kids-horse-donation-program.html>

Donate Today

